1. Call to Order

a. Sign In / Roll Call

Two parents were present along with Mrs. Lindy McNutt, the school principal and Mr. Zazueta, the social services assistant.

b. Introduction of all present

Both parents have children classified as EL in both TK and 1st grade.

c. Meet the Principal

Mrs. Lindy shared a little about herself and her extensive experience in the education field.

2. Introduction to ELAC

a. What is ELAC?

Beginning with the presentation, the principal explained what the federal mandates are and what the statistics are for our school.

b. How do we determine ELL?

The classification process was explained and we answered what kind of help is given throughout the day and how it differs from RTI (response to intervention).

c. The ELPAC and why it's important

March 6 & 7 are the dates for the upcoming summative assessment. Link will be shared so parents can take practice tests with students at home.

3. Attendance

a. Raising awareness of the importance of regular attendance

Link will be shared to CWA page on FSD website. We reviewed what is considered Truancy based on the district requirements.
