FSD Board Resolution

Supporting Our Black Community and Standing Against Racial Injustice

June 25, 2020

This is a Resolution of the Board of Trustees of the Fullerton School District to improve the understanding of biases and anti-Black racism and to proclaim the lives of Black students matter. The Board looks to implement greater sensitivity and personal understanding of racial inequalities. We embed direct actions and programs within our school community by encouraging district wide participation during the first week of February declaring that the lives of Black students matter in conjunction with Black History month.....

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, the Fullerton School District Board of Trustees support the collaboration of educators across grade levels and content areas to use resources that are inclusive of all our diverse learners to enrich instruction throughout the entire year, supporting curriculum to accurately portray the cultural and racial diversity of our society.

THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees want to receive a formal, coordinated plan, representing actionable proposals from the voices of our entire community.

What is Culturally Responsive Teaching?

Que es enseñanza culturalmente responsiva?

- Provide more opportunities for students who might not normally have a chance to participate.

Hosted by inaugural National Youth Poet Laureate, Amanda Gorman, this half-hour program features authentic conversations between real children and their parents and includes content from DANIEL TIGER'S NEIGHBORHOOD, ARTHUR, and XAVIER RIDDLE AND THE SECRET MUSEUM. The show looks at race and racial justice-related topics in an age-appropriate way and offers viewers ideas to build on as they continue these important conversations at home.
